Antarctic Sketchbook -Claudia

Claudia Myatt is a local marine artist, illustrator and writer as well as a popular art tutor.

In 2020, Claudia was appointed Artist in Residence for Friends of the Scott Polar Research Institute. She joined the Royal Navy on board HMS Protector to sketch life on board ship on a voyage from the Falklands to South Georgia, the South Sandwich Islands and the Antarctic. All of this is documented in her book the "Antarctic Sketchbook" which she will talk about on the night.
